Flexperian collects and organizes information about you and your credit history from reliable sources that include public records and your creditors. Flexperian makes your credit history available to your current and prospective creditors, employers and others as allowed by law, which can accelerate your ability to obtain credit and can make offers of credit available to you. We do not award or withhold credit; each credit lender makes that decision based on their own guidelines. To return to your report in the near future, log on to www.flexperian.com/personalcreditreport and select "View My Report" and then enter your report number. If you potentially disagree with information in this report, return to the Report Summary page and follow the instructions there to dispute credit report content.

Important Message from Your Credit Agency

By law, we cannot disclose certain medical information (relating to physical, mental, or behavioral health or condition). Although we do not generally collect such information, it could appear in the name of a data furnisher (i.e., "Cancer Center") that reports your payment history to us. If so, those names display in your report, but in reports to others they display only as MEDICAL PAYMENT DATA. Consumer statements included on your report at your request that contain medical information are disclosed to others.
